THE BUSY COURTS

Jesse Morgan vs His Divorce

JUDGE LANEY

Burglars. Hold-ups, Rowdies, Thieves and Drunkards File in Before His Honor.

Judge Anderson was on the bench in the Third District court yesterday morning, when the divorce case of Jesse Morgan vs. Mary E. Morgan came up. The defendant did not appear and it was shown that the parties intermarried at Camp Floyd in 1872, and have resided in Park City since 1888; that on September 17th, 1889, the defendant deserted her husband and has since refused to live with him; that from October following the desertion she has cohabited with one Kelsey and Joseph Scott and others. A decree of divorce was granted on the grounds of adultery and desertion.

The case of S. P. Armstrong vs. Elizabeth Connolly et al. was continued. In the matter of the incorporation of the Snake River Canal and Power company, an order of dissolution was entered.

The case of Henry H. Myster vs. Elizabeth Gates was continued until July 21st.

The case of Martha S. Edmunds et al. vs. Susan A. Stringham, which was brought to quiet title to the Stringham property, at the corner of South Temple and Third East, was taken under advisement.

John Brown, charged with murder, was ordered to be brought in for consultation with his attorney.

Police Court.

Judge Laney had a big rush of business in the police court yesterday.

James Thompson and James Sullivan, the two toughs who were arrested on Saturday night for holding up Architect Hensgen, opposite the Cliff house, were arraigned and pleaded not guilty. They will have an examination this morning.

Edward Williams, James Green, James Brown and Henry Meeklen were fined $5 each for trespass.

In the afternoon the case of Charles Creek, who is charged with picking the pockets of George Harmon, of Taylorville, last Friday, came up and the evidence for the prosecution was taken. The defense will commence this morning.

Mike Phelan was fined $25 for resisting and striking Officer Dwyer.

Frank Spencer and J. Barnigh were fined $25 and $15 respectively for disturbing the peace and quiet of Commercial street.

The fourth of July drunks were Pat Doe, James Brown, C. Sullivan, Thomas Edwards, John Vaguit, James Holland, Thomas Ryan, James Carroll, Tom Manning, Tom Jacobs, James Brown, Dan Campbell, Tom Burns, Tom Scott, Link Larson, Abo Gunderson, James Mullien, William Jones, Charles Keah, Walter Harris, S. Ober, James Collins, H. J. Borgett, Frank Jones and Mike Sweeney were arrested at an early hour yesterday morning on the charge of burglary. It seems that on Sunday night some one entered a room in the Enterprise house and stole a suit of clothes and other articles. The police were notified and while going through the alley back of Commercial street these men were seen. They had hidden their plunder in a doorway and would have escaped had it not been for Night Watchman Dobson, who was on the ground. They will have a hearing to-day.

JEFF BURNS NABBED.

The Man Who Robbed the Colorado Postoffice Arrested in Salt Lake.

In February, 1890, the postoffice at Argo, Colo., was broken into by burglars, who got away with $350 in cash, some stamps and other valuables, and a few months later the postoffice at Golden, Colo., was burglarized and $750 in cash stolen. Inspector Patterson, who was detailed to investigate the first case, came to the conclusion that both jobs were committed by the same men, and that Jeff Burnes and one Galt were the burglars. The latter was captured at Council Bluffs some time ago, but Burnes succeeded in eluding the officers for a long time. He skipped out from Denver with his wife's sister, with whom he had been living for some time, last summer, and the pair went down to the Mexican line. After staying there awhile, Burnes and the woman went to Massachusetts, and some two months ago Burnes came on to Salt Lake. He was evidently very hard up, as he recently accepted a job as a laborer in a brick yard over the river. Inspector Patterson trailed his man to this city, and then employed Detective Franks to locate him. The latter had the crook identified by Mrs. George Simmons, formerly of Denver, and Franks nabbed his man just as he was going into a Main street saloon on Saturday evening. As soon as he was arrested, Burnes saw that the jig was up, and he readily consented to return to Denver without putting the officers to any further trouble. Inspector Patterson and Detective Franks started for Colorado with their prisoner yesterday morning.

BACK FROM ALASKA.

The First Excursion Party Returns--John Bechtel is Enthusiastic.

A party of well known Salt Lake returned home yesterday from an extended trip to Alaska. The party was composed of Mrs. William Jennings and maid, Mrs. Precilla Riter, Mrs. Dix, Miss Esther Eldredge, James Eldredge and wife, Mrs. J. B. Farlow and John Bechtel. The party left here on May 25 and took the Oregon Short Line. At Tacoma they took the steamer for Alaska, and visited every port of entry in that strange land, besides making numerous extended excursions inland.

John Bechtel was seen by a Herald man yesterday, and he appeared to be the personification of good health and good nature. John is a great enthusiast over Alaska, and says he has to hold himself in when talking to people who have never been there for fear they might consider him a crank. "Talk about Niagara and the Yosemite," said Mr. Bechtel, "why, they are not in it with Alaska. There isn't anything that compares with that land for scenery. It's full of interest, too, and in fact, I wouldn't have missed the trip for half a dozen tours through Europe. The weather was just right for perfect comfort, and we had a splendid time."

Mr. Bechtel and party arrived off Alaska shortly after the dawning of several of the crew of the government cutter Bear, and the party attended the funeral of the unfortunate seaman. On the way from Alaska to Portland they passed the Roberts and Lowe party from this city, and exchanged salutations. They passed Mr. Chambers and party at Tacoma.

Let Slade Stick to His Farm; He is a Fourth Rate Pugilist--No Fight Between Lange and La Blanche.

The ball game between the London Tailors Co.'s team and the M. R. Evans nine attracted a fair attendance at National park on Sunday. It was a very close and exciting game from start to finish, but the Evans boys managed to win by one run. Barker and Busby were the pitchers and both did some great twirling. Among the Fighters.

Slade is not at all satisfied with his defeat by Lange. He says he is going back to his farm, but it will only be to get in condition for another go at Lange, if the latter will give him the opportunity. If the Maori will take our advice he will never again enter the ring. He has had the advantage of years of training under Jim Mace, Sullivan, LaBlanche and other masters of the many art, and the result on Friday night shows that they have all failed to make a successful fighter of him. Slade should stick to his farm. It is a good deal better to be a successful farmer than a defeated, fourth-rate pugilist.

ARE YOU INTERESTED.

The following frank statement from J. E. Hare, of Trenton, Texas, will be of interest to many of our citizens. "My little boy was very bad off for two months with diarrhea. We used various medicines, also called in the doctors, but nothing done him any good until we used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave immediate relief and soon cured him. I consider it the best medicine made and can conscientiously recommend it to all who need a diarrhea or colic medicine." For sale by Z. C. M. I. drug dept.

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes that tired feeling, creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

Fagged Out

"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. BROOLE, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

"I derived very much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took for general debility. It built me right up, and gave me an excellent appetite." ED. JENKINS, Mt. Savage, Md.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy anything else instead. Insist upon having
